Approved For Release 2003/10/21: CIA-RDP65B00383R000200040103-4

MISSING PAGE

ORIGINAL DOCUMENT MISSING PAGE(S):

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel

SX1A whose father is the 25X1
Subcommbine sinff, called and referred to an UPI item which indicated that had getten out of Cuba. Sourwine assumed we were adding him and wished to know if there whe any chance of his being made available as a wisness before the Subcommittee. I told Sourwine I would look into this and be in touch with him.  25X1A  25X1A  7.
Sebenomistice staff, called and referred to an UPI item which indicated that had getten out of Cuba. Sourwine assumed we were adding him and wished to knew if there was any chance of his being made available as a winess before the Subcummittee. I taid fourwine I would look into this and be in touch with him.  25X1A  7	(1 Sourwing, Senate Internal Security him and wished to know if there was any chance of his being made available as a winness before the Subcommittee. I taid Sourwine I would look into this and be in touch with him.  25X1A  7.
25X1A  7.
this and be in touch with him.  25X1A  7.
that Robert Hurwitch (State Department) had called him concerning a request to Hurwitch from Seneter Gale W. McGee, (D., Wyo.) for examples of "lousy Cuban Refuges Reporte." indicated that man getting these together and was sending them to State. I indicated this was fine and that Hurwitch should handle this as though it was strictly a State Department matter.  1. I dropped by to see Congressman Eugens J. Keegh (D., N.Y.) concerning a letter from a constituent which he had forwarded to State Department. The constituent,  25X1A	this and be in touch with him.
request to Harwitch from Sensior Gale W. McGee, (D., Wyo.) for examples of "lousy Cahan Refigee Reporte." Indicated that    Mas getting these together and was sending them to State. I indicated this was fine and that Hurwitch should handle this as though it was strictly a State Department matter.    State examples of "lousy Cuban Refuges Reports." Indicated that Sinte. I indicated this was fine and that Hurwitch should handle this as though it was strictly a State Department matter.  3.	* / / / / / / / / / / / / / / / / / / /	Α
State. I indicated this was fine and that Hurwitch should handle this as though it was strictly a State Department matter.  8. I dropped by to see Congressman Hugens J. Keegh (D., N. Y.) concerning a letter from a constituent which he had forwarded to State Department. The constituent,  A he had forwarded to State Department. The constituent,  A he was extremely high regard for whose father is the 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A an extremely high regard for whose father is the 25X1 25X1A 25X1A and thinks that the state to us. I told the Congressman that we were always interested in knowing about these things, although we could not guarantee that we would have a definite interest. Keegh said he understood.  Mr. Keegh, who was most cordial although quite busy, said he had an extremely high regard for the Agency, for the work that it was doing and for the people in it, and he wanted to let us know this. He said he never wanted to meddle in our business and worked on the assumption that if he could help us, we would call upon him. I thanked hir. Keegh for these expressions and told him that we would have a someone in A I dropped by to see Congressman  Eugens J. Keegh (D., N. Y.) concerning a letter from a constituent which he had forwarded to State Department. The constituent.  A Mr. Keegh said he had an entremely high regard for whose father is the to us. I told the Congressman that we were always interested in knowing about these things, although we could not guarantee that we would have a definite interest. Keegh said he understood.  Mr. Keegh, who was most cordial although quite busy, said he had an extremely high regard for the Agency, for the work that it was doing and for the people in it, and he wanted to let us know this. He said he never wanted to meddle in our business and worked on the assumption that if he could help us, we would call upon him. I thanked hir. Keegh for these expressions and told him that we would have someone in	was fatting these independent and may separal to
A  A  A  A  A  A  A  A  A  A  A  A  A
Eugens J. Keegh (D., N.Y.) concerning a letter from a constituent which he had forwarded to State Department. The constituent,  A	I describe his to say Community
A he had forwarded to State Department. The constituent.    Mr. Keegh said he had   25X1A   25
A an entremely high regard for whose father is the 25X1  an entremely high regard for whose father is the 25X1  and thinks that height be of interest to us. I told the Congressman that we were always interested in knowing about these things, although we could not guarantee that we would have a definite interest. Keegh said he understood.  Mr. Keegh, who was most cordial although quite busy, said he had an extremely high regard for the Agency, for the work that it was doing and for the people in it, and he wanted to let us know this. He said he never wanted to meddle in our business and worked on the assumption that if he could help us, we would call upon him. I thanked hir. Keegh for these expressions and told him that we would have someone in	he had forwarded to State Department. The constituent.	25X1A
A an emiremely high regard for whose father is the 25X1  to us. I told the Congressmen that we were always interested in knowing about these things, although we could not guarantee that we would have a definite interest. Keegh said he understood.  Mr. Keegh, who was most cordial although quite busy, said he had an extremely high regard for the Agency, for the work that it was doing and for the people in it, and he wanted to let us know this. He said he never wanted to maddle in our business and worked on the assumption that if he could help us, we would call upon him. I thanked hir. Keegh for these expressions and told him that we would have someone in	X1A	25X1A
to us. I told the Congressmen that we were always interested in knowing about these things, although we could not guarantee that we would have a definite interest. Keegh said he understood.  Mr. Keegh, who was most cordial although quite busy, said he had an extremely high regard for the Agency, for the work that it was doing and for the people in it, and he wanted to let us know this. He said he never wanted to meddle in our business and worked on the assumption that if he could help us, we would call upon him. I thanked hir. Keegh for these expressions and told him that we would have someone in		25X1A
25X1  about these things, although we could not guarantee that we would have a definite interest. Keegh said he understood.  Mr. Keegh, who was most cordial although quite busy, said he had an extremely high regard for the Agency, for the work that it was doing and for the people in it, and he wanted to let us know this. He said he never wanted to meddle in our business and worked on the assumption that if he could help us, we would call upon him. I thanked hir. Keegh for these expressions and told him that we would have someone in		25X1
about these things, although we could not guarantee that we would have a definite inverse. Keegh said he understood.  Mr. Keegh, who was most cordial although quite busy, said he had an entremely high regard for the Agency, for the work that it was doing and for the people in it, and he wanted to let us know this. He said he never wanted to meddle in our business and worked on the assumption that if he could help us, we would call upon him. I thanked hir. Keegh for these expressions and told him that we would have someone in	AND	25X1
he had an extremely high regard for the Agency, for the work that it was doing and for the people in it, and he wanted to let us know this. He said he never wanted to meddle in our business and worked on the assumption that if he could help us, we would call upon him. I thanked hir. Keegh for these expressions and told him that we would have someone in	about these things, although we could not guarantee that we would have a
	he had an extremely high regard for the Agency, for the work that it was doing and for the people in it, and he wanted to let us know this. He said
1 9. Italked with Senator Jack Miller (S., Iswa)	that if he could help us, we would call upon him. I thanked hir. Keegh that if he could help us, we would call upon him. I thanked hir. Keegh

Approved For Release 2003/10/21: CIA-RDP65B00383R000200040103-4